1	The forums are so wonderful! I really look forward to them! Thank you!!!!	6/14/2016 10:53 AM
2	Anything that brings a faith community together is worthwhile.	6/14/2016 10:50 AM
3	Topics like obedience; observing, is Christian daily observing any different; the Holy Spirit, how do we learn it and live it? The Episcopal Church: since the earliest times (esp in England) what practices and beliefs and people have influenced us? How do we recognize them today?	6/14/2016 10:43 AM
4	Publicize the next 4 forums in the bulletin on a rolling basis to give generous advance notice.	6/14/2016 9:40 AM
5	Maybe coordinate fora in Lent better with the Wed. evening programs. Have some fora be service-oriented, where we "do" something either around the church or for outreach ministry. Perhaps have a few where we coordinate with youth group.	6/14/2016 9:20 AM
6	I wonder if the Parish Hall is the best location for the forum? A light and lovely space, good for getting coffee, excellent AV equipment all recommend it. But because the Choir has to assemble there, it can seem as though the speaker--who has such a short presentation time anyway--is being rushed along. Could the forum meet in the Parish Hall? Alternatively, could the liturgical ministers assemble in the Parish Hall for prayer?	6/6/2016 7:15 AM
7	I would offer an addition to the Forums Each month I would like to see One Sunday in lieu of a sermon devoted to each Commission explaining exactly what they do. This would not only educate our parish about "what we do" but also give an opportunity for those in the congregation to give some thought as to how they would like to contribute to our family. Just wishing! Sue T.	5/23/2016 5:57 PM
8	Last year there were too many forums on 'the arts' which were not relevant. Glad we are posting the subject of upcoming forum on the weekly email. VERY helpful!	5/23/2016 11:09 AM
